SHORT ANSWER QUESTIONS:

This section will help us get to know you, this is not meant to be a writing sample or test. We thank you in advance for sharing your thoughts with us.

Why do you want to work for All Five?

What is your philosophy of early childhood education? Or: how do you think children learn best?

All Five is pioneering a new approach to equity in early education by integrating socioeconomic children and families. Do you believe in this approach? What do you anticipate the benefits and challenges to be?

What would you say are your professional goals for the next 1 to 5 years?

If we were to ask your best friend what he/she thought your 3 best qualities are, what do you think he/she would say?

Do you think you use these qualities in your work with children? With co-workers? Please explain.

If we asked that same person what 3 areas you needed to improve upon, what would he/she say?

Teacher Application for All Five

Do these areas come up in your work with children or with co-workers? Please explain.

What age group (between infants and 5-year-olds) do you prefer working with?

Is there an age group (between infants and 5-year-olds) you absolutely would not want to work with?

Describe a positive experience or “teachable moment” you’ve had with children; and explain what you think you did to help make it positive.

Describe a challenging behavior-guidance or disciplining experience you have had with children. Tell what you did and what the outcome was. If you think it could have been handled differently, tell what you would do if you had a similar experience again, and why.

At All Five, we take time to work on, develop and maintain our shared values – our culture. We commit to using a process called Culture in Action to work through tensions, share stories and define goals. What tensions have you experienced in your work with children and colleagues? How have you worked through them?
